

Journeying with Joseph

Several Barbadian entertainers are set to hit the big screen when the movie Joseph premieres on Tuesday at the Barbados Independent Film Festival.

The movie tells the tale of Joseph, played by Kevoyn Burton, who is deterred by family members while trying to reconnect with his African roots.

Soca star Alison Hinds plays his mother and Shontelle stars as his sister.

Here, from left Errol Griffith, Alison Hinds, directors Marcia Weekes and David Weekes, of Step By Step Productions, and public relations specialist Ricardo Blackman chatting after the media launch of Joseph yesterday.
